As autumn settles in and the early morning chill begins to bite, this warm, refined outfit is the perfect seasonal companion. The ivory knit V-neck sweater offers both texture and comfort, effortlessly layered with a rich camel wool scarf for that touch of timeless elegance. Pleated, wide-leg trousers in a neutral beige keep the silhouette relaxed yet polished—ideal for crisp strolls or warm coffee stops. Finished with glossy black lace-ups and round-frame sunglasses, this look blends classic tailoring with modern ease, making it a staple for the stylish professional navigating colder days with grace.

The Eton Box shoe is created out of a cow leather, offering a shiny finish and a sturdy sole with a subtle texture. Fine laces add to this classic design.
